

Oil Industry Lobbying in California January – September 2015

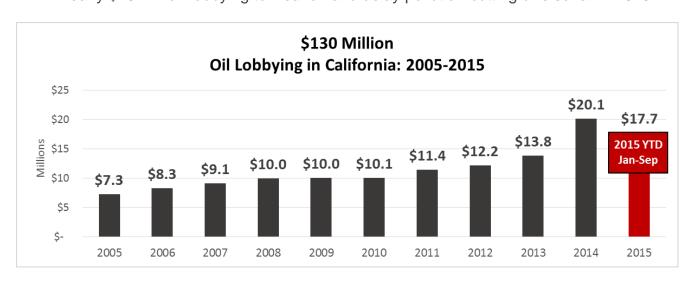

- -Oil lobbyists blanket California legislature spending nearly $18 million so far this year.
 - $11 million in last three months of legislative session (Jul-Sep).
 - Focused attacks on SB 350, the Clean Energy & Pollution Reduction Act (de León and Leno)
 - Oil lobbyists top spenders in California.
- -Follows record $20 million spent on lobbyists in all of 2014.
- -Unprecedented ballot measure-style campaigns to fight clean air bills in the Capitol.
 - Major spending increases over last two years.

Lobbying reports filed with the Secretary of State's office show that from July to Sept:

- The oil lobby in California spent $11 from July 1 to September 30, 2015.
 - $125K per day in oil lobbying.
- The Western States Petroleum Association (WSPA) spent $6.8 million (Jul-Sep) and ranks #1 among lobbying spenders both in the last quarter and for the year to date.
 - WSPA paid KP Public Affairs over $1.1 million.
 - KP is the top-earning lobbying firm in the state so far this year.
- Chevron spent $1.8 million (Jul-Sep) and ranks #4 in lobbying spending so far this year.
- Major increases also seen by Phillips66 ($835k) and Valero ($582k).

Big Oil historically spends more than all other lobbying groups, but has greatly expanded spending in last two years:

- $20 million lobbying effort to limit oil industry role in carbon reduction policy in 2014.
- Nearly $18 million lobbying to weaken and delay pollution-cutting bills so far in 2015.

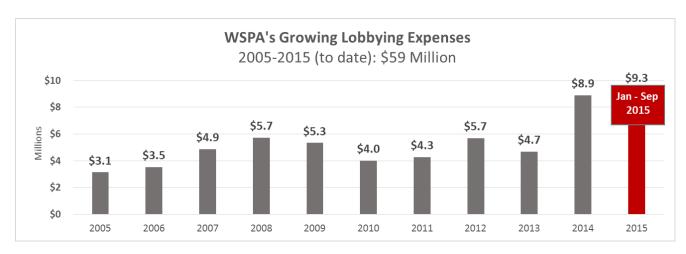

"Much like tobacco companies want to keep smokers dependent on their deadly products, the oil industry will stop at nothing to keep California dependent on harmful fossil fuels – putting our health and climate in danger. These reports highlight the magnitude of the spending power of the oil industry who will put the protection of their profits before the health of our children, communities and planet."

-Olivia (Gertz) Diaz-Lapham, President and CEO American Lung Association in California
